FRIDAY - OCTOBER 21, 1983

The Wiseman Baptist Association convened in its 93rd annual session with Salem Missionary Baptist Church, Highway 109 North, Gallatin, Tennessee on Friday, October 21, 1983, at 10:00 A.M.

Services began with singing led by Elder L. W. Smith, accompanied at the piano by Sister Katherine Thurman. "When I've Traveled My Last Mile" was sung. The moderator made preliminary remarks concerning our meeting, its purpose, fellowship and our work. He read for a devotional lesson Psalm 24:1-10. Elder C. L. Russell, pastor of the host church, welcomed everyone to the association and made a prayer request for three seriously ill members of Salem church. Other requests were made for those sick in area hospitals. Elder Paul Bryson of Bowling Green, Kentucky led the congregation in prayer. The song, "I'm Bound For That City," was sung.

The moderator presented Elder Charles Patterson, the appointee, to preach the Introductory Sermon.

Bro. Patterson expressed his appreciation for this day and this opportunity, and requested the prayers of God's people.

He read for a lesson Hebrews 11:23-27 and Romans 12:1. His theme was, "It's Decision Time Down At The Crossroads." Bro. Patterson began his message by referring to Moses in Egypt and the bondage of the Israelites. Moses' birth, childhood and related circumstances were used in the basis of his sermon, Exodus 2:1-25.

Bro. Patterson spoke of Moses' mother submitting her infant son into the hands and providence of God. He then brought Moses into the scene as a servant and instrument in the plan and work of God. Moses' time of learning and preparation was mentioned. The decision time down at the crossroads was drawing near for Moses, Hebrews 11:24-27.

The Apostle Paul and his call to the ministry, preparation, etc., was given, Galatians 1:15-17. Bro. Patterson spoke of the need of God's servants making preparation for the Lord's work.

He continued his discourse, speaking of the many sinful temptations before God's people today and how we had the responsibility of choice in going the way of sin and the world, or following God.

Bro. Patterson referred to the time of the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt, by God's power and Moses' willingness to be used as a servant and leader.

Abraham and the manifestation of his faith by his works, in offering his son Isaac, was used at this time, showing the time of decision down at the crossroads, came to Abraham, Genesis 22:1-19. Bro. Patterson spoke of Jesus and his statement about being a servant, Matthew 20:28. He mentioned all the sacrifices of Jesus in leaving heaven and coming to earth for us and for God's cause, the greatest sacrifice being at Calvary.

Joshua's statement to the Israelites about choice was given, Joshua 24:15. This sermon was well delivered and with much Spiritual zeal. May it be used to bring us all to a deeper devotion to God and His cause.

While singing "Amazing Grace," "Living By Faith," "Just Over In The Glory Land," and "Some Day," the congregation extended the right hand of fellowship to one another and to Bro. Patterson in appreciation for his good sermon.

MISSIONS

In Matthew 28:19-20, we are taught that the church of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ is here in the world for many reasons.

Jesus tells her what he wants done, the order in which it should be done, and gives her the marching orders to go forth.

Mission work is not something new. It was in God's plans from the foundation of the world (Rev. 13:8). Jesus was the greatest missionary that the world ever knew. John 3:17: For God sent not his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world through him might be saved.

A missionary is someone being sent. Jesus was sent into the world to do for mankind what he could not do for himself and he completed his mission. John 17:4: I have glorified thee on the earth: I have finished the work which thou gavest me to do. But while he was here on his mission he organized his church. The people were made ready to go into the church by a Missionary Baptist preacher. John 1:6: There was a man sent from God, whose name was John. Matthew 11:11: Verily I say unto you, Among them that are born of woman there hath not risen a greater than John the Baptist, notwithstanding he that is least in the kingdom of Heaven is greater than He.

This was the church that He gave the marching orders, to go, and she is the missionary in the world today and the only missionary that God has here in the world.

First he said — go. Then he tells what to do when we go — to preach the gospel to all nations and to be a witness for the Master. When Jesus sent out the 12 on the "limited commission" he said as ye go, preach, saying, "The Kingdom of Heaven is at Hand." Matthew 10:7.

Jesus still wants his church to go and to preach the gospel. The church has sent out many brethren to different locations in the world who are laboring in mission fields today. Also we have brethren doing mission work through radio broadcasts and many churches are doing mission work through the television network from coast to coast.

May each church continue to support mission work with your prayers and finances, because God is depending on us (His Church) to reach those that are lost.

Prayerfully submitted,
James E. Suttle
Harold Dunn
Landon C. Long

Moved the report be adopted. After spoken on by Elder James E. Suttle, Elder Landon C. Long, Elder Harold Dunn and Elder Edgar Copeland, the motion for adoption carried.

The report on Lafayette Baptist Orphans Home was read by Elder Hilman Duncan.

LAFAYETTE BAPTIST ORPHANS HOME

We believe that orphan children should be supported. We believe they should receive an education, and also to be taught in the way of the Lord. The Lafayette Baptist Orphans Home gives the children these necessities, and a family life, for which we are grateful to Bro. and Sister Thomas and their children.

One of the greatest blessings Baptist people can receive is to support the home with material things, and God will bless with Spiritual things. It is more blessed to give than to receive.

The Lord informs us, that by serving these little ones, we are serving Him. Matthew 25:35-40, "For I was an hungered, and ye gave me meat: I was thirsty, and ye gave me drink: I was a stranger, and ye took me in: Naked, and ye clothed me: I was sick, and ye visited me: I was in prison, and ye came unto me. Then shall the righteous answer him, saying, Lord, when saw we thee an hungered, and fed thee? or thirsty, and gave thee drink? When saw we thee a stranger, and took thee in? or naked, and clothed thee? Or when saw we thee sick, or in prison, and came unto thee? And the King shall answer and say unto them, Verily I say unto you, Inasmuch as ye have done it unto one of the least of these my brethren, ye have done it unto me."

No doubt, there are many children who need this environment, and love. This home can care for several more children. We should pray that God will direct in bringing them to this home.

Humbly submitted,
Elder Hilman Duncan
Elder J. W. Briley
Elder A. G. Gregory

Elder Howard G. Taylor read the report on Sunday Schools and Prayer Meetings.

SUNDAY SCHOOLS AND PRAYER MEETINGS

The Lord's Church has the responsibility to provide opportunity for every member and family to study and to be taught the truth. Sunday School is unique in that it brings children together with other children to teach them how the Church works as well as to teach them to respect the members of the Church. Sunday School provides adults the opportunity to study the doctrines of the Church.

Matthew 28:20, "Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world."

Sunday School is a time to sit down together and study the word of God.

Ecc. 3:1, "To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven."

Our study begins with the thoughts of the writer of our Sunday School Literature. The teacher then builds upon this base with other passages of scripture that harmonize with, or enlarge upon, the subject of the scripture being studied.

We have good, sound literature that we can recommend to every Church to provide a good Sunday School

The Missionary Baptist Literature Committee can be commended for the work they have done in providing us with this good literature.

Prayer Meetings

Prayer is that opportunity afforded us to approach God's throne of grace through Jesus Christ, with our petition and thanks to God.

Jesus said in John 16:23, "And in that day ye shall ask me nothing. Verily, Verily, I say unto you, whatsoever ye shall ask the Father in my name, he will give it you."

Mid-week prayer meeting affords us a special service to come apart from our places of abode, to the house of God to pray. Acts 3:1, "Now Peter and John went up together into the temple at the hour of prayer, being the ninth hour." Jesus placed much emphasis upon prayer. One place we read where he spent all night in prayer, Luke 6:12. We are not only taught the importance of coming apart to pray, but what we are to pray for. Paul prayed for the Church at Ephesus. Eph. 1:16-18, "Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers; That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him: The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints."

Let us always remember the words of Paul in I Thes. 5:17, "Pray without ceasing."

Howard G. Taylor

Edgar Copeland

Moved the report be adopted. The motion carried after spoken to by Elder Howard G. Taylor, Elder Edgar Copeland and Elder H. C. Vanderpool.

An offering was taken for the Orphans Home at this time. The amount was $656.36.

Moved to adjourn until 7:00 P.M. Motion carried. After announcements, Deacon Luther Jent of Denver, Colorado prayed the benediction.

FRIDAY NIGHT

Services began at 7:00 P.M. with singing led by Bro. Dean Cornwell, accompanied at the piano by Bro. Bobby Butts. "I Want To Know More About My Lord" was sung, followed by remarks by the moderator. He spoke of what a wonderful day we had enjoyed and the manifestation of God's grace upon us. The mercy of God and His recognition of us was spoken of and the remarks received a number of Amens from the congregation. Everyone was welcomed to the service and this night session of the association. Visitors were welcomed to our assembly. Elder Ronnie Galloway of Murfreesboro, Tennessee led the congregation in prayer. "Heaven's Jubilee" was sung and the moderator presented Elder William E. Massey who read the report on Obituaries.

OBITUARIES

During the past year according to the report of the Churches of the Association, God has called 59 of our brothers and sisters from time to their eternal home.

The scripture teaches to depart this life is to be with Christ which is far better, Philippians 1:23.

And the apostle John heard the voice from Heaven saying, "Write, Blessed are the dead that die in the Lord from henceforth; yea sayeth the spirit that they may rest from their labours and their works do follow them."

So, these our departed loved ones have neither lived in vain nor died in defeat but have won the victory in Christ, "And this is the victory that overcometh the world, even our faith." I John 5:4.

Respectfully submitted,

Elder W. E. Massey

Moved the report be adopted. Elder William E. Massey was then presented to preach the Memorial Sermon. In his introductory remarks, he referred to the 59 brothers and sisters who had been called from our fellowship by death during the past year.

Bro. Massey read Ephesians 3:14-15 for his lesson. The subject chosen by the speaker was, "The Family of God." He quoted Proverbs 10:7, to show how precious the memory of our departed loved ones is. Other scriptures quoted at this time were: I Corinthians 15:48; Galatians 3:26; II Corinthians 5:17; John 8:44; James 1:18; Romans 8:16. These reflected the Spiritual relationship that the saved have with God.

Bro. Massey referred to Hebrews 11, to present the fact that Old Testament prophets and servants were not listed as fathers and sons, but rather, as brothers in God's family. The speaker mentioned our departed brothers and sisters who had glorified God in their lives, Ephesians 3. He said the principles of the Old Testament prophets and what they believed and taught, harmonized with the New Testament teachings; Hebrews 11:40, Matthew 8:11, Luke 13:28-29, Jude 14.

Bro. Massey reminded us once again, how that we, God's children as through the centuries, are going into the presence of God in heaven, one by one. This was truly a good Memorial Sermon presented in memory of our departed loved ones who have gone to be with the Lord this past year, and also all those who have passed this way during the ages past and gone forever.

While singing "I'm Going To Heaven," "This World Is Not My Home" and "Amazing Grace," the congregation came and extended to Bro. Massey their hand of endorsement for the good sermon, and to one another in Christian fellowship.

The motion for adoption of the report on Obituaries, and as ably discussed during the sermon, carried.

Moved to adjourn until 9:00 A.M. Saturday. Carried.

Announcements were made and the benediction was prayed by Elder Burton Massey.

SATURDAY – OCTOBER 22, 1983

On the above date the Wiseman Baptist Association assembled on the final day of the 93rd annual session at 9:00 A.M.

Services began with singing led by Elder L. W. Smith, accompanied at the piano by Sister Annette Sutton. "O, I Want To See Him" was sung and introductory remarks were made by the moderator. He read Ephesians 1:1-6 for a devotional lesson. Several requests were made for prayer. The congregation was led in prayer by Elder Edgar Copeland, followed by the song, "Heaven Will Surely Be Worth It All."

The roll of messengers was called by the clerk.

The clerk read the minutes of Friday and Friday night. Moved the minutes be adopted. The motion carried.

The report on Faith and Practice of True Baptists was read by Elder C. L. Russell.

FAITH AND PRACTICE OF TRUE BAPTISTS

True Baptists have lived since the days of John the Baptist and Jesus Christ, Acts 1:21-22. "Remove not the ancient landmark which our forefathers have set." Prov. 22:28.

True faith, as we understand, that the worlds were framed by the word of God, Heb. 11-3. Through faith and practice we believe that the true church was purchased by the blood of the Son of God, Acts 20:28.

Adam hid from God because he was lost, Gen. 3:9. We are saved, and what is our excuse for hiding? Eph. 2-8. We need to pray to God to increase our faith and to practice what we preach. We are taught to earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered to the saints. Jude 1-3.

The Lord is the God of knowledge and by him actions are weighed, I Sam. 2:3. We are taught to measure our conduct, I Tim. 3:15-16. We need quality before quantity, II Tim. 3:15-16. We believe in full-time services and we have a lot of part-time members.

Faith and Practice is to train a child up in the way he should go and try walking there yourself, Prov. 22:6. Paul gives us proof of Faith and Practice in II Tim. 4:1-8.

Prayerfully submitted,
C. L. Russell
Kenneth Davis

Moved the report be adopted. Carried after spoken to by Elder C. L. Russell. The report on Financing The Lord's Work was read by Elder Johnny Meador.

FINANCING THE LORD'S WORK

We, your committee, submit the following report:

Financing the Lord's work simply means providing of our material properties to supply the financial needs for the great cause of our God to advance and prosper in all phases. God gave us the very best that He had, our Saviour, His Son, His church, the Holy Spirit, and His word which teaches us to return a part of that he blesses us with to God with honor and praise. "Honor the Lord with thy substance and with the firstfruits of all thine increase," Proverbs 3:9. Upon the first day of the week lay by in store as God has prospered us.

But this I say, he which soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly, and he which soweth bountifully, shall also reap bountifully, II Corinthians 9:6. Every man according as he purposeth in his heart, so let him give. Not grudgingly, or of necessity, for God loveth a cheerful giver, II Corinthians 9:7.

We are not submitting this report for argument's sake "on the mode" of giving, but let it be with the right purpose in heart, and way the Lord said to give, and that is with honor and praise to his name; the firstfruits of our increase; upon the first day of the week; bring into the storehouse; bountifully, willingly, cheerfully and regularly.

I believe that when the church is revived and are taught the whole counsel of God, that they will provide for the need of the cause, because the Spirit of giving is motivated in the heart with love for the cause.

Take heed therefore unto yourselves and to all the flock over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood, Acts. 20:28.

Humbly submitted,
Elder Johnny Meador
Elder Raymond A. Sutton

Moved the report be adopted. Those speaking on the subject were Elder Johnny Meador, Elder Ray Sutton and Elder Landon C. Long. Motion for adoption was carried.

At this time an offering was taken to assist Colorado Missionary Baptist Church, Denver, Colorado with their new house of worship. The offering was $838.25.

Elder Bobby Gann read the report on Church Discipline.

CHURCH DISCIPLINE

We, your committee, submit the following:

We believe that failure to enforce discipline has been a hindrance to many of our churches. Jesus said to his church, "Ye are the light of the world." If the light of his churches is to shine out as it should, the members of those churches must live close to him and keep their lives clean and pure from the slime and filth of the sinful world in which they live. Undisciplined churches are robbed of their power to witness effectively for the Lord, because of sin in their membership.

We believe the church should be kept clean. We also believe that forgiveness is part of discipline. When a church member acknowledges his wrong, it is the duty of the church to forgive and restore him into full fellowship. I Thessalonians 5:14, "Now we exhort you, brethren, warn them that are unruly, comfort the feebleminded, support the weak, be patient toward all men."

Elder Bobby Gann

Elder Bobby Pitt

Moved the report be adopted. The motion carried after spoken to by Elder Bobby Gann, Elder Bobby Pitt and Elder J. W. Briley.

The time arrived for the Doctrinal Sermon. The sermon was to be preached by the clerk. Due to the fact the assistant clerk was not present, it was moved that Elder Ottis Jones serve as clerk until noon. The motion carried.

Brother Levy Smith led "When I've Traveled My Last Mile." After the song, the moderator introduced Elder H. C. Vanderpool as an able preacher, but as all of God's laborers, stood in need of God's help at this hour.

Bro. Vanderpool stated that it was an honor to be privileged to stand before the association, and thanked the messengers for the opportunity. He asked that all would consider the message carefully. He read for a lesson, Luke 1:1-4. His subject was "The Doctrine of The Stone Mountain Kingdom." Reference was made to Daniel's explanation of the king's dream of a stone that was cut out without hands, and which became a great mountain. He spoke of the various occasions in the Bible where symbols were used to illustrate the Lord's teachings, and that the church was referred to as a mountain.

He spoke of this stone that became a mountain, and which was spoken of by Isaiah and Micah. In Hebrews 1:1-2, ". . . in these last days," was explained as the time of John's and our Lord's ministry until the end of time.

Bro. Vanderpool spoke of Jesus calling out the material that John the Baptist had prepared, and stated that this was the beginning of the church, Matthew 4:12-22 and Mark 1:14-20. It was pointed out that both John the Baptist and Jesus preached repentance. That as Jesus taught as one with authority, his hearers were "astonished at his doctrine." Mark 1:22, the doctrine of the stone mountain kingdom.

Jonah in Old Testament times preached repentance, Jonah 3:1-5 and Luke 11:32. Peter preached repentance on the day of Pentecost, Acts 2:38. Paul preached repentance on Mars Hill at Athens, Acts 17:30.

Bro. Vanderpool, referring to his lesson, pointed out that Luke stated that he was "setting forth a declaration of those things most surely believed among us."

True repentance and faith, which brings salvation to sinners, is a doctrine of the stone mountain kingdom. Also, another doctrine of the kingdom is scriptural baptism to the saved. Matthew 3:1-17; John 4:1-2; Mark 16:16; Matthew 28:18-20; Acts

2:37-41; Acts 10:44-48; Acts 8:36-39. Baptism, being one of the two ordinances of the church, is essential to membership in the stone mountain kingdom, the church.

The other ordinance, the Lord's Supper and its observance according to the scriptures, was ably discussed by the speaker. Exodus 12:3-15; Matt. 26:17-30; Mark 14:12-26; Luke 22:1-30; John 13:1-30; I Corinthians 10:15-21; I Corinthians 11:17-30.

Another doctrine believed among us is the "freeness of salvation" and Paul spoke of it in Romans 6:23. That salvation is eternal and is secured eternally, I John 5:4-5; Revelation 3:5.

According to Daniel, the stone mountain kingdom would break into pieces all other kingdoms, and itself would never be destroyed, but stand forever. Daniel 2:35-44; Matthew 16:18; Ephesians 3:21.

Bro. Vanderpool referred to Revelation 19:6-9, John 2:1-2, and said the Bride of Christ, His Church, was The Stone Mountain Kingdom, that all the saved not in the Bride would be present as guests. A chorus of Amens were heard from the congregation.

As Bro. Levy Smith led "Amazing Grace," "I Shall Be At Home With Jesus" and "Just Over In The Glory Land," the congregation came forward and gave Bro. Vanderpool their hand of endorsement of the wonderful message.

Moved to adjourn one hour for lunch. Carried. Bro. Cecil Sherron from Rock Bridge Church, who is 84 years old today, prayed the benediction and offered thanks for the meal. He thanked the Lord for the many times he had been privileged to attend the association and for the many messages he had heard.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Once again Salem Missionary Baptist Church did a wonderful job in feeding and entertaining the association. The meal was bountiful and the fellowship was enjoyable and strengthening.

Services resumed with singing led by Bro. Joe Thompson accompanied at the piano by Bro. Steve Furman. "I'll Fly Away" was sung. After remarks by the moderator he read Psalm 8:1-9. Elder J. H. Smith led the congregation in prayer.

The report on Resolutions was read by Elder Raymond B. Sutton.

Bro. Bobby Butts read the report on Correspondence.

CORRESPONDENCE

We, your committee, submit the following report.

Salem Missionary Baptist Church is thankful for this opportunity to serve the Wiseman Baptist association in this 93rd session. We are thankful for the good warm Christian fellowship and for God's Spirit which was felt and shown toward one another.

We would like to thank each one that assisted in the preparation of the meals. The sisters of our church and sisters of our sister churches have done an excellent job and we thank them.

All help to the church is appreciated.

We are thankful for each one that attended the association and pray that you gained something by attending; and that we can all be strengthened in God's grace and love.

We have a great heritage and you have helped preserve it with God's help.

We are thankful for God's blessings toward us and for the love that he has for his people and we should cherish that and want to teach our children and grandchildren this old time way as there is nothing like it in all the world.

"Walk about Zion and go round about Her: tell the Towers thereof Mark ye well Her Bulwarks, consider Her Palaces: that ye may tell it to the generation following." Psalm 48:12-13.

Prayerfully submitted,
Bobby Butts
Joe Porter
Homer Smith

Moved the report be adopted. The motion carried after spoken to by Bro. Bobby Butts and Bro. Homer Smith.

The following letters of Correspondence were read. Moved they be adopted and that our clerk send letters of like nature to our sister associations. Carried.

To: Wiseman Missionary Baptist Association

From: Bethel Baptist Association

We the Bethel Missionary Baptist Association, send Christian greetings to all the sister Baptist associations with whom we correspond. We are now closing our twenty-sixth annual meeting. Our thanks go unto God for a wonderful time of fellowship we have had together.

It grieves our heart when we look on the fields and see the harvest is so great and so little being done in making disciples and teaching them the ways of the Lord.

Brethren, please pray for us that we may become more concerned about the Lord's work.

We feel that it is very important for our associations not to be isolated from one another, and we want to invite all our sister associations to meet with us during our next session which will be held with the Salem Missionary Baptist Church, Route 1, Bargersville, Indiana on September 14th, 15th, and 16th, 1984.

If the Lord permits, preaching the Introductory Sermon in our next session will be Elder Eugene Brown.

May God bless you, and our hopes are to see you in 1984.

MEMORIAL

Elder G. O. Templeton was born June 8, 1909, the son of William and Nora Templeton of Bethpage, Tenn. He was reared on a farm and spent his entire life farming along with his ministry.

He was saved at Wolf Hill schoolhouse. After attending church for some time at Old Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church, he united with that body and was baptized into her fellowship by Elder R. O. Sanders on Nov. 11, 1934.

He was married to Miss Kathryn Williams on Nov. 4, 1928. Five sons and three daughters were born to this union.

He acknowledged his call to preach and was ordained to the full work of the gospel ministry by Old Hopewell Missionary Baptist Church in Sumner County, Tenn. in September, 1938. In the early part of his ministry he walked to some of his appointments. He was called to Buffalo Springs Baptist Church as his first pastorate. Churches served as pastor and dates were: Buffalo Springs, 1940-1953; Fairview, 1946-1950 and 1951-1958; Old Hopewell, 1953-1960; Pleasant Grove, 1950-1958; Rock Bridge, 1965-1972. Bro. Templeton was a good sound Baptist preacher and helped in several meetings where he witnessed a lot of people being saved, and then united with old fashioned Baptist churches. He and Elder R. O. Sanders held meetings in a tent and a home in Gallatin, Tenn., which was the beginning of the mission later organized into West End Missionary Baptist Church.

He lived to see all his children saved, something he prayed hard for. He passed away on Nov. 17, 1982 in Gallatin, Tenn. Funeral services were conducted at Buffalo Springs Missionary Baptist Church, where he held membership, on Saturday, Nov. 20, 1982, at 11:00 A.M. The services were conducted by Elder Bobby Hale, his pastor, and Elder James W. Briley. A large crowd attended. Bro. Templeton was buried in the Pleasant Grove Cemetery. Pallbearers were some of his preaching brethren: Elders C. L. (Dee) Russell, Ronnie Harrison, J. B. Robertson, Charles Vaughn, James (Pete) Porter and Harold D. Linville.

Bro. Templeton was a good man, a good pastor and a good sound preacher. He will be missed by all who knew him. Our loss is heaven's gain.
