

Week 4: The True God

Scripture Reading:

"God is a Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth." - John 4:24

Opening Prayer:

Begin with a prayer recognizing the incomprehensible nature of God, and seeking understanding and clarity as you delve deeper into His attributes.

Devotional:

The one true and living God, an infinite and intelligent Spirit, is named JEHOVAH, the supreme Creator and Ruler of both heaven and earth. His holiness is beyond description, making Him deserving of utmost honor, trust, and love. Within the Godhead's unity, there are three distinct persons: the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Each of these persons is equal in their divine perfection, yet they play unique but harmonious roles in the grand scheme of redemption. This triune nature of God exemplifies the depth and mystery of His essence. As expressed in the scriptures, the unity and oneness of God is evident when Jesus proclaimed, "I and my Father are one." (John 10:30).

Discussion:

1. How does understanding God as a Spirit influence our approach to worship? (John 4:24; Isaiah 6:3)
2. In what ways do the scriptures reveal the triune nature of God? (Matt. 28:19; John 15:26; 1 John 5:7)
3. Share a moment or revelation where the nature of God deeply impacted your faith journey.

Closing Prayer:

Ask to understand and experience God's presence more deeply in daily life.
